Seni Man

1 in 8 men is challenged with some loss of bladder control

This can happen at any age. If you are coping with occasional leakage, try Seni protection in 2 styles developed especially for men.

Seni Man Active

30 pcs in pack
12 packs per case

Side gathers and surface of very soft nonwoven materials to prevent skin irritation

INDIVIDUALLY WRAPPED
for convenience and hygiene

Extra Dry System in the central area for dryness where it is needed most

Side gathers to contain leakage

Fully breathable Seni Man guards have a vapor-permeable outer layer which provides a skin-friendly microclimate. They are anatomically shaped to fit a man's body.

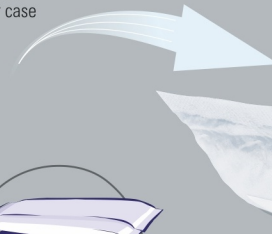

Locking moisture inside the core reduces bacterial growth and helps contain odor.

Seni Man Fit

20 pcs in pack
8 packs per case

for convenience and hygiene

Side gathers and surface of very soft nonwoven materials to prevent skin irritation

Unique 3D shape to fit the body best

Wide and high side gathers help contain even abundant leakage

ideal for protection after prostate surgery

For men leading active lives who need comfort and security combined with discretion.

What others say about Seni Man guards

Best ever used. Will hold more than pull up underwear and has the best leak guards that surround you in a pouch like form. (...) Also I have been using some form of protection every day for 20 years. Trust me when I say I have tried them all.
